CareSource launches new website

Dayton, OH, September 11, 2009 -- CareSource, a public-sector managed care company, announced the launch of its new website at www.caresource.com

The new design, improved navigation, and search capability incorporates all of CareSource's plans and products into one easy-to-navigate website.

Enhanced features include:

- A secure Provider Portal allowing providers to access critical information such as prior authorizations, member eligibility, membership lists, coordination of benefits information, and a Preferred Drug List
- A Member Profile web-based service that provides physicians and other healthcare providers with comprehensive patient historical information designed to improve patient quality and outcomes
- E-Prescribing capabilities
- Find a Doctor search tool for members
- A Member Portal allowing members to change their doctor, update their address, and check their own eligibility
- Media News Room
- And much more!
