CARESOURCE RANKED 3RD ON DAYTON BUSINESS JOURNAL'S TOP 100 COMPANIES LIST

DAYTON, Ohio, May 26, 2010 – CareSource, a non-profit, public-sector managed care company, has been ranked third on the Dayton Business Journal's Dayton-Area Top 100 Companies List in its May 14, 2010 edition. CareSource's rank is up three places from 2008, when they finished sixth on the list.

The list, which is ordered by revenue, ranked CareSource as third with a reported $2.4 billion in revenue. According to the Dayton Business Journal, CareSource added more than 26 percent in revenue for the second consecutive year. CareSource, which is headquartered in downtown Dayton, employs nearly 900 employees in Ohio and Michigan.

"We are very proud to be one of the fastest growing companies in the Dayton area," Pamela Morris, President and CEO, said. "As a non-profit, managed health care company, our mission is to serve the underserved. By keeping our administrative costs low, we are able to provide high quality services at a fraction of the cost of other health plans."

About CareSource

CareSource is a non-profit health plan founded on the principles of quality and service, delivered with compassion and a thorough understanding of the Medicaid consumer. By staying true to its mission of making a difference in the lives of underserved people by improving their health care, CareSource has become one of the largest and fastest growing Medicaid managed care plans in the nation.

Today, CareSource serves more than 834,000 Medicaid and Medicare Advantage consumers in Ohio and Michigan.

With a strong focus on preventive care, CareSource utilizes a continuum of care model to members at all stages of health and illness. In addition to all required services, CareSource offers extra benefits such as a 24-hour nurse advice line, transportation to doctor's appointments, and a variety of care management programs.
