Subject: Getting Ready for ICD-10

ICD-10 is just around the corner! CareSource reminds you to make sure your practice is prepared to begin using ICD-10 codes on all claims beginning October 1, 2015. To help ensure that you are ready, here are some helpful tips from the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS):

- Assess how ICD-10 will affect your practice and make a plan
- Be sure your systems are ready
- Contact your vendors

CMS has also released a concise guide to ICD-10 resources that may also be helpful. This guide focuses on quick references and key steps that you can take to prepare for the October 1 transition.

Keep Up to Date on ICD-10

Visit the CMS ICD-10 website and Roadto10.org for the latest news and resources to help you prepare. You can also sign up for CMS ICD-10 Email Updates.

And don't forget: the ICD-10 Resource Center on our website has additional links and resources for you.
