

Start Driving Again

With Help From CareSource

CareSource Driver's License Reinstatement Benefit

CareSource® knows that good health is more than just good health care. Being able to drive can help you access services that can affect your health and well-being. CareSource may be able to help you get back your independence through our driver's license reinstatement benefit if you have a suspended driver's license.

What We Offer:

Here are some ways we can help you get driving again:

- Education on how to get your driver's license reinstated
- Financial support up to $500 for filing or court fees linked to driver's license reinstatement (one-time support)
- Referrals to legal help
- Support from the CareSource team

Benefit Eligibility:

Members who have had a driver's license suspension and are working with one of the programs below may be eligible for this benefit. Some exclusions apply based on your past driving record.

- CareSource Reentry Program™
- Care Management
- CareSource Life Services®
- CareSource JobConnect™
