To: Indiana Medicaid Providers
From: CareSource
Subject: Did You Know? CareSource's Nurse Family Practitioner Program

Did You Know?

CareSource offers a Nurse Family Practitioner Partnership, a collaborative effort with Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana, to help low-income, pregnant mothers by arranging for a home visit from a registered nurse. This joint effort focuses on curbing Indiana's high infant mortality rates across the state. Members are paired with a nurse family practitioner early in their pregnancy to continue an ongoing relationship until the child turns two years old.

Please access the WRTV Indianapolis' press release and the News and Tribune press release for more details and stories on this program.

Importance

CareSource believes that partnering with our providers is the most successful route to engaging members in programs and services that improve their health and well-being. Our goal is to keep you informed on our enhanced programs and services that address member health, mental health, and social determinants. We encourage you to refer members to our programs as you identify their needs for care and support.
