Spring Into Good Mental Health

Ready to make the most of Spring and feel rejuvenated? Try these activities:

Get your hands dirty.

Grow a plant or two in your own garden! If you grow veggies or herbs, you can add them into healthy meals. Many plants do well in pots and can grow with light from a window. Green beans, tomatoes, basil, and rosemary are easy to grow. Plus, many public libraries offer seeds or host plant swaps to help you get started.

Prioritize sleep.

More sunlight this season may make you feel like staying up later – but don't fall for this. Getting enough sleep will help you be energized for all the things you want and need to do.

Go outside.

Whether it's taking a walk or reading outside, getting some sunlight can do wonders for your mental health. Don't forget to wear sunscreen!

Revamp your living space.

Organize household items. This can leave you feeling brand new for a new season. Plus, you'll easily be able to find things when you need them.

Want more ideas?

Four Tips to Kick Nicotine Pouches to the Curb

Nicotine pouches may seem like a safe way to help quit tobacco products. Did you know they can still be harmful and addictive? Quitting can be a challenge, but it's possible! Check out these tips:

- Use a lower dose of nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) than your pouches.
- Practice “mini quit” sessions. Don't use a nicotine pouch when you normally would. You'll gain experience dealing with cravings and grow more confident.
- Wait longer between pouches. Each extra minute can help you learn to deal with cravings.
- Change your routines. For example, if you normally use nicotine after a meal, go for a walk. If you buy nicotine at a specific store, change your route to not pass the usual location.

If you're struggling to quit, the Tobacco Quit Line can help. They offer free quit coaching and more. Call 1-800-QUIT-NOW (800-784-8669) to enroll or ask questions.

Get Rewarded!

Earn rewards when you take steps to quit and stay tobacco-free. Learn more at CareSource.com/NVrewards.

Medication Adherence Made Easier

Sometimes, managing your medicine can seem like another chore on your to-do list. Taking them correctly is key. This means taking the right dose at the right time. It also means picking them up from the pharmacy on time. Many pharmacies offer ways to make it easier for you to get your medicine:

Ask about filling all your medications on the same day.

Ask about getting your medicine delivered right to your door with mail-order delivery.

Myths vs Facts: Vaccines

Vaccines help keep us healthy. Some things about vaccines can be confusing. It's good to know how vaccines help us stay healthy. Here are some common myths and the facts about vaccines:

1

Myth: Getting sick from diseases that vaccines can prevent is just part of life.

Fact: Vaccines can prevent diseases that can cause lasting problems.

Vaccines help your body learn how to fight off these diseases.

This protects you if you get exposed to them.

2

Myth: I don't need to be vaccinated because others are already protected.

Fact: When many people are vaccinated, it helps protect everyone.

This helps those who can't get vaccinated, like babies or pregnant women.

But if too many people don't get vaccinated, the disease can spread again.

3

Myth: A child can get sick from a vaccine.

Fact: It's unlikely for someone to get sick from a vaccine.

Most vaccines are made from germs that have been killed or weakened, so they can't make you sick. An individual might have minor or temporary side effects like a sore arm or a low fever. Serious side effects are rare.

Remember, vaccines are a safe way to keep everyone healthy!
Please talk to your provider if you have any questions or concerns.

True stories of triumph in CareSource Life Services®

CareSource Life Services is here to help you with all aspects of your health – even your financial health!

Miguel opted into the CareSource WorkConnect program hosted by the CareSource Life Services team. A CareSource Life Coach helped him get a good job, but now he needed to do some financial planning. Miguel followed all of his coach's advice and it paid off. Eventually his credit score reached the minimum needed to buy a house for his growing family. "I never imagined I would be approved," Miguel said. His dream of home ownership is now within reach.

Nutrition and Affordability

With food prices rising, it is more important than ever to shop on a budget. Here are some basic tips and tricks that can help you eat well, stay healthy, and save money!

Make a Plan:

Before you go to the store, make a list of what you already have. This will help you avoid buying what you do not need.

Important Food Groups:

Buy plenty of whole grains that can last, such as oatmeal and brown rice. These are easy to freeze and store. When buying vegetables and fruits, buy what is in season. This is when they are cheaper.

Protein:

Meat can be expensive, so buy what is on sale. Look for lean meats that are good for grilling and broiling. Buy larger packs if you can, as it is cheaper in the long-run. Beans are a great way to add protein to your diet. They are affordable and can be added to many meals.

Buy in Bulk:

Buy in bulk if you can. It is cheaper in the long-run. We'll even help you get started - get a free Sam's Club® Plus membership! The membership includes free shipping on orders over $50 and free grocery delivery for orders over $50 within 15 miles of the club. Request your voucher through CareSource MyLife at MyLife.CareSource.com.

If you need help paying for healthy food, you may qualify for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). Learn more and apply at fns.usda.gov/snap.
