With Help From CareSource

CareSource Driver's License Reinstatement Benefit

CareSource knows that good health is more than just good health care. Being able to drive can help you reach services that can affect your health and well-being. CareSource may be able to help you get back your independence through our driver's license reinstatement benefit if you have a suspended driver's license.

What We Offer:

Here are some ways we can help you get driving again:

- Education on how to get your driver's license reinstated
- Financial support up to $500 for filing or court fees linked to driver's license reinstatement (one-time support)
- Referrals to legal help
- Support from the CareSource team

Benefit Eligibility:

Members who have had a driver's license suspension and actively work with our CareSource Life Services staff may be eligible for this benefit. Some exclusions apply based on your past driving record.
